

NEW CDS

Santana

'All That I Am'

Carlos Santana found success pairing his licks with contemporary singers, and this disc is no different.

Terri Clark

'Life Goes On'

Canadian country crooner Terri Clark seeks to build on the success of her last album, "Pain to Kill."

Slipknot

'9.0: Live'

Nü-metal monsters Slipknot's main claim to fame is the scary (or hilarious) masks the band wears onstage.

John Fogerty

'The Long Road Home: Ultimate John Fogerty Creedence Collection'

John Fogerty led Creedence Clearwater Revival in the '60s, and now all of the songwriter's hits with Creedence and as a solo artist are available in one place.

Imogen Heap

'Speak For Yourself'

British singer/songwriter Imogen Heap, who is one half of the duo Frou Frou (the band landed the tune "Let Go" on the "Garden State" soundtrack), has released her second solo venture.

MORE TO COME

IN SUNDAY'S TRIBUNE: Read Music Writer Chris Hansen Orf's Aural Fixations column on John Fogerty's new CD "The Long Road Home: Ultimate John Fogerty Creedence Collection."